

2. Thomson scattering is the scattering of light from a free electron (no binding, no damping). Derive the total cross section  $\sigma$  for Thomson scattering by treating the scattered radiation generated by an electron in an electromagnetic plane wave. Assume that the speed of the electron remains small:  $v \ll c$ .